

brentwood-darlington
neighborhood association

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: September 6th, 2019

Brentwood-Darlington, Portland, OR: Brentwood-Darlington Neighborhood Association (BDNA) will host a Community Engagement Forum on proposed changes to Portland City Code 3.96 on September 24th, 2019, 6:00-8:00PM at Brentwood-Darlington Community Center, 7211 SE 62nd Ave, Portland, OR 97206.

Special guests include Suk Rhee, Office of Community & Civic Life Director, Sabrina Wilson, Code Change Project Manager, and Winta Yohannes, Policy Advisor to Commissioner Eudaly.

Neighbors, especially those who cannot attend, are encouraged to submit their questions ahead of time using an online form until September 20th, 2019. Refreshments provided. Everyone is welcome, regardless of neighborhood.

For more information, visit www.brentwood-darlington.org.

About Brentwood-Darlington Neighborhood Association: Located in lower southeast Portland, Brentwood-Darlington Neighborhood Association (BDNA) is one of ninety-five citizen-run, all volunteer associations representing Portland, Oregon neighborhoods. Public meetings are held the 1st Thursday of every month at 7:00PM at Brentwood-Darlington Community Center. Visit brentwood-darlington.org for more information.

###